

Hal Cooper

Hal took his first balloon flight in 1991. He did his flight training in New York in 1996 and received his commercial pilot certificate which also included an instructor rating.

He has represented Canada at the World Hot Air Balloon Championships in Austria in 2008. Hal was a commercial pilot for Remax Hot air balloon team for eight years.

Hals Ballooning Company has flown in 12 states and over a number of mountain ranges including the Rockies, Catskills, Appalachians, Adirondacks and the Swiss Alps.