

Paul Burrows

Paul has been flying hot air balloons since the age of 17 and this year sees him celebrating his 25th anniversary as a qualified pilot. Currently specialising in operating special shape hot air balloons Paul also has many years' experience flying aerial advertising balloons globally and passenger rides balloons in the UK.

This is Pauls third year attending the Heritage Inn Balloon Festival an event he describes as one of his favourites.

Paul will be accompanied by his eldest son James once again in 2017 Following two previous visits with The Little Boy and Little Girl this year see's the North American debut of Lighter than Air's newest special shape "Busby" the Queens Guardsman.